Effective Date: April 14, 2003

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW HEALTH INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION

Please review the full Notice of Privacy Practices (NPP) which is attached. If you have any questions about this notice, Please contact, Privacy Officer at (219) 763-8112.

Who will follow this notice:

- NorthShore Health Centers

This notice describes our privacy practices. All these entitled, sites, and locations follow the terms of this notice. In addition, these entitled, sites, and locations may share health information with each other for treatment, payment, or health care operations purpose described in this notice.

Our pledge regarding health information:

We understand the health information about you and your health care is personal. We are committed to protection health information about you. We create a record of the care and to comply with certain legal requirements. This notice applies to all of the records of your care generated by this health care practice, whether made by your personal doctor or others working in this office. This notice will tell you about the ways in which we may use and disclose health information about you. We also describe your rights to the health information we keep about you, and describe certain obligations we have regarding the use and disclosure of your health information.

We are required by law to:

- Make sure that health information that identifies you is kept private.
- Give you this notice of our legal duties and privacy practices with respect to health information about you and follow the terms of the notice that is currently in effect.

How we may use and disclose health information about you.

The following categories described different ways that we use and disclose health information. By coming for care, you give us the right to use your information for treatment, to get reimbursed for your care, and to operate our organization.

There are also various other ways in which we may use or disclose your information:

- Appointment reminders
- To allow oversight of quality of the healthcare we provide
- To allow workers compensation claims

- AS required by subpoena in lawsuits and disputes
- Various uses as required by law or to avert a serious threat to health or safety

The full details for all these uses are contained in the full NPP.

Your rights regarding Health information about you

You have the following rights regarding health information we maintain about you:

- Right to inspect and copy
- Right to amend
- Right to an accounting of disclosure
- Right to request restrictions
- Right to request confidential communications
- Right to a paper copy of this notice

Information on how to exercise these rights can be seen in the NPP or can be obtained from, Privacy officer at (219) 763-8112.

Changes to this notice

We reserve the right to change this notice. We reserve the right to make the revised or changed notice effective for health information we already have about you as well as any information we receive in the future. We will post a copy of the current notice at our facility. The notice will contain on the first page, in the top right-hand corner, the effective date. In addition, each time you register for treatment or health care services, we will offer you a copy of the current notice in effect.

Complaints

If you believe your privacy rights have been violated, you may file a complaint with us or with the Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services. To file a complaint with us, contact Privacy Officer. All complaints must be submitted in writing. You will not be penalized for filing a complaint.

Other Uses of Health Information

Other uses and disclosures of health information not covered by this notice or the laws that apply to us will be made only with your written permission. If you provide us permission to use or disclose health information about you, you may revoke that permission, in writing, at any time. If you revoke your permission, we will no longer use or disclose health information about you for the reasons covered by your written authorization. You understand that we are unable to take back any disclosures we have already made with your permission, and that we are required to retain our records of the care that we provided to you.

- About a death we may be the result of criminal conduct;
- About criminal conduct at our facility; and
- In emergency circumstances to report a crime; the location of the crime or victims; or the identity, description, or location of the person who committed the crime.

Coroners, health examiners and Funeral directors: We may release information to a coroner or health examiner. This may be necessary, for example, to identify a deceased person or determine the cause of death. We may also release health information about patients to funeral directors as necessary to carry out their duties.

National Security and Intelligence Activities: We may release health information about you to authorized federal officials for intelligence, counterintelligence, and other national security activities authorized by law.

Protective services for the President and others: We may disclose health information about you to authorized federal officials so they may provide protection to the President, other authorized persons or foreign heads of state or conduct special investigations.

Inmates: If you are an inmate of a correctional institution or under the custody of a law enforcement official, we may release information about you to the correctional institution or law enforcement official. This release would be necessary (1) for the institution to provide you with health care; (2) to protect your health and safety or the health and safety of others; or (3) for the safety and security of the correctional institutional.

Your rights regarding health information about you

You have the following rights regarding health information we maintain about you:

Rights to inspect and copy: You have the right to inspect and copy health information that may be used to make decisions about your care. Usually, this includes health and billing records.

To inspect and copy health information that may be used to make decisions about you, you must submit your request in writing to a privacy officer. If you request a copy of the information, we may charge a fee for the costs for copying, mailing or other supplies and services associated with your records.

We may deny your request to inspect and copy in certain very limited circumstances. If you are denied access to health information, you may request that the denial be reviewed. Another licensed health care professional chosen by our practice will review your request and the denial. The person conducting the review will not be the person who denied your request. We will comply with the outcome of the review.

Right to Amend: If you feel that health information we have about you is incorrect or incomplete, you may ask us to amend the information. You have the right to request an amendment for as long as we keep the information. To request an amendment, your request must be made in writing, Submitted to a Privacy officer, and must be contained on one page of paper legibly handwritten or typed in at least 10 point font size. In addition, you must provide a reason that supports your request for an amendment.

We may deny your request for an amendment if it is not in writing or does not include a reason to support the request. In addition, we may deny your request if you ask us to amend information that:

- Was not created by us, unless the person or entity that created the information is no longer available to make the amendment;
- Is not part of the health information kept by or for our practice;
- Is not part of the information which you would be permitted to inspect and copy; or
- Is accurate and complete

Any amendment we make to your health information will be disclosed to those with whom we disclose information as previously specified.

We are not required to agree to your request for restrictions if it is not feasible for us to ensure our compliance or believe it will negatively impact the care we may provide you. If you do, we agree, we will comply with your request unless the information is needed to provide you emergency treatment. To request a restriction, you may make your request in writing to a Privacy officer. In your request, you must tell us what information you want to limit and to whom you want the limits to apply; for example, use of any information by a specified nurse, or disclosure of specified surgery to your spouse.

Right to a paper copy of this notice: You have the right to obtain a paper copy this notice at any time. However, at the time of first service rendered after April 14, 2003, it is required that you receive a paper copy. To obtain a copy, please request it from a Privacy officer.

Changes to this notice

We reserve the right to change this notice. We reserve the right to make the revised or changed notice effective for health information we receive in the future. We will post a copy of the current notice in our facility. The notice will contain on the first page, in the top right-hand corner, the effective date. In addition, each time you register for treatment or health care services, we will offer you a copy of the current notice in effect.

Complaints

If you believe your privacy rights have been violated, you may file a complaint with us or with the Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services. To file a complaint with us, contact Privacy Officer. All complaints must be submitted in writing.

Other uses of Health information

Other uses and disclosures of health information not covered by this notice or the laws that apply to us will be made only with your written permission. If you provide us permission to use or disclose health information about you, you may revoke that permission in writing at anytime. If you revoke your permission we will no longer use or disclose health information about you for reason covered by your written authorization. You understand that we are unable to take back any disclosures we have already made with your permission and that we are required to retain for our records of the care that we provided to you.

PAYMENT POLICY

Your health is important to us and we want to continue to be here when you need us!

NorthShore Is Not A “Free Clinic”, but is a Not-For-Profit Community Health Center which provides quality healthcare to all, regardless of ability to pay. Everyone must pay their sliding fee, which is determined by their income. (All are charged the base amount).

- ◆ Your situation has been reviewed, and a reasonable fee has been determined. It is expected that you will pay that reasonable amount at time of service.
- ◆ If you have insurance: Medicare, Medicaid, or Private Insurance, notify intake personnel at the time of your interview.
- ◆ If your insurance situation should change in the future, notify us at the time you make an appointment.
- ◆ If you do not show for your appointment and you do not call within 24 hours to cancel or reschedule, there will be a $25.00 charge.
- ◆ If you have two no-shows, you will no longer be able to schedule an appointment. You may walk in and wait until an opening becomes available.
- ◆ If you are sliding fee/self pay patient: You will be responsible for any additional charges that may be incurred, in addition to your office visit (labs, x-rays, EKG, etc).
- ◆ Payment due is expected when service is rendered. Any exceptions must be approved by billing coordinator.
- ◆ If payment is not received within 60 days, your account will be turned over to our collection agency. Patient agrees to pay all costs incurred with collection of any past due account, including a monthly service fee of $5 and a minimum of $125.00 in legal fees including court cost, and attorney fees.
- ◆ With each patient taking responsibility for their portion, we will be able to continue to provide you with quality health care.
- ◆ By working together, we will ensure that NorthShore Health Centers are available to all who need our services.

I have read the payment policy and understand that the fee assigned to me is payable at the time of service.

Patient Responsibilities

It is our goal at NorthShore Health Centers to provide you with quality primary health care. We are entering into a partnership with you for your health and well-being. In order to provide you with the best care possible, your cooperation is expected and appreciated.

Appointments- Our hours are by appointment. If you are not able to keep your appointment, call and cancel. That time is reserved just for you. If you don't show up, valuable time is wasted!

Medical History- The more complete you are giving us your health history, the better able we are to serve you. This includes all medications that you take, including over the counter drugs.

Language- If you have any difficulty speaking or understanding English, if possible, bring an interpreter with you.

Questions- If there is any aspect of your care that you don't understand or aren't sure of, you need to ask us!

Courtesy- You should expect to be treated with respect and courtesy. We will respect your time and your intentions; we expect the same from you.

Education- You are the best advocate when it comes to your health. We strongly urge you to take advantage of health education classes as they are offered.

Personal Information- Keep us informed of any change in address or phone number.

Updates- Every six months, you will need to provide us with a written record of your current income. (Pay stubs, tax statements, letter for employer)

Surveys- As a part of our quality improvement, we will periodically ask you to fill out a survey.

Off Site Healthcare- If you seek medical care outside of NorthShore Health Centers; you are responsible for any fees charges.

Medical Advice- You need to follow advice given by your Healthcare Provider. This includes taking medication only as prescribed and returning for follow up appointments. If you are having trouble getting your medication because the cost is too high, you need to tell your Healthcare Provider.

REMEMBER, you are now part of NorthShore Health Centers. The success of this clinic depends our working together as a team. Help us to make this effort a success.

This list of patient responsibilities has been explained to me and I have received a copy. I understand that as a partner in my health care at NorthShore Health Centers, I am expected to follow the guidelines above.
